

Zenergize – Terms & Conditions

(Engineer & EPC Onboarding)

By accessing, registering, or onboarding on the Zenergize website or mobile application (“Platform”), you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to be bound by these Terms & Conditions. These terms govern your relationship with Zenergize and apply to all EPC partners, installers, engineers, and associated professionals using the Platform. If you do not agree with any part of these terms, you should refrain from registering or using the Platform.

Zenergize is a technology-enabled platform that facilitates collaboration, coordination, and service enablement within the renewable energy ecosystem. The Platform is intended strictly for professional and lawful use. By registering, you confirm that you are legally competent to enter into a binding agreement under Indian law and that all information provided by you during onboarding is true, accurate, complete, and up to date. Zenergize relies on this information for verification and operational purposes, and any false or misleading information may result in suspension or termination of access without prior notice.

You agree to use the Platform responsibly and only for legitimate business purposes. You shall not engage in any activity that disrupts, damages, or interferes with the functioning of the Platform, nor attempt unauthorized access, data extraction, reverse engineering, or misuse of any system features. Any such actions may lead to immediate account suspension and legal action, where applicable.

As part of the onboarding and continued use of the Platform, you expressly consent to Zenergize collecting, storing, processing, and using your personal and professional data. This data is used to enable onboarding, verification, operational coordination, service delivery, internal analytics, and improvement of platform services. Additionally, you agree that Zenergize may use certain details such as your name, company name, location, and professional profile for business communication, marketing, and promotional activities, including listings, outreach, and brand-related communication.

Zenergize assures that your data will not be used for any unlawful, unethical, or unauthorized activities. Reasonable technical and organizational safeguards are implemented to protect your data from unauthorized access, misuse, or disclosure. Access to personal data is strictly limited to authorized personnel and trusted partners who are bound by confidentiality and data protection obligations.

Zenergize reserves the right to suspend or terminate your account at its sole discretion if you are found to be in violation of these Terms, involved in fraudulent or unlawful activities, or where such action is required to comply with legal or regulatory obligations. Zenergize shall not be held liable for any indirect, incidental, or consequential damages arising from the use of the Platform, including disputes between engineers, EPCs, customers, or third parties.

These Terms & Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India, and the courts within India shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any disputes arising hereunder.
